

Radio Cape Pulpit 729AM appoints Wanda Bam as new station manager

7 JUL 2023 SAVE | EMAIL | PRINT | PDF

Radio Cape Pulpit 729AM has appointed Wanda Bam as its new station manager, taking over from former manager Kosie Burger who retired. Bam, a renowned radio presenter, public speaker and author, brings extensive experience in the radio industry to her new role.

She commenced her position in early July. With a career spanning 25 years, Bam began at Radio Pulpit 657AM before relocating to the Cape. Additionally, she possesses a background in the music industry and spent eight years as the head of music, drama and performing arts at a prominent church in Pretoria.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>